

Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 Emblem Usage Guidelines

National Olympic Committees

Version 2.0 April 2018

Introduction

This document provides an overview of the graphic standards for Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 intellectual property, which is managed by the Tokyo Organising Committee of the Olympic and Paralympic Games (hereinafter the “organising committee”) and includes brand assets associated with the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 (emblems, mascots, and pictograms, etc.).

National Olympic Committees (hereinafter the “NOCs”) are key to the success of the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020. NOCs are responsible for promoting and advertising the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 in their territories, consolidating an important partnership that helps broaden the global reach of the Olympic Games.

Our emblems and other assets are made available to NOCs for non-commercial purposes only. Due to the commercial rights structure within the Olympic movement, the only commercial entities with any rights to use our marks or otherwise associate with the Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 within their territories will be the Worldwide Olympic Partners and Tokyo 2020 Sponsors as appropriate.

Use of Tokyo 2020 Emblem and Tokyo 2020 Wordmark

NOCs and IFs may enhance the Olympic Identity of their uniforms (Clothing only) by using the Tokyo 2020 Emblem or Wordmark on a limited basis, provided the following conditions are observed. In general, the Tokyo 2020 Emblem and the Tokyo 2020 Wordmark must:

- be sourced directly from Tokyo 2020 and used in accordance with the Tokyo 2020 Emblem Usage Guidelines;
- not be used for any commercial purposes including, but not limited to, licensed and replica merchandise;
- only be used once per item of Clothing, with a maximum size of 30 cm² or 44 mm width;

In particular,

- It is forbidden to associate the Tokyo 2020 Wordmark with an Identification of the Manufacturer.
 - When used in conjunction with the NOC Emblem or IF Identification, the Tokyo 2020 Wordmark should be positioned under the NOC Emblem or IF Identification with a distinctive gap or separation between the Tokyo 2020 Wordmark and the NOC Emblem or IF Identification or separated by a small dividing line. The Tokyo 2020 Wordmark can only be reproduced in its entirety as defined in the Emblem Usage Guidelines or in a generic font (i.e. Arial, Helvetica, etc.).
- *The Tokyo 2020 Emblem may be used on competition and NOC clothing and must absolutely appear alone. It is forbidden to associate the Tokyo 2020 Emblem with any other Authorised Identification (such as an Identification of the Manufacturer or an NOC Emblem or IF Identification). The Tokyo 2020 Emblem can only be reproduced in its entirety as defined in the Tokyo 2020 Emblem Usage Guidelines.

NOCs are authorised to use the aforementioned Tokyo 2020 brand assets, but only under the conditions as specified in these guidelines and for non-commercial purposes.

In order to access Tokyo 2020 brand assets, NOCs must request access to the specific page on the Tokyo 2020 Extranet - Connect.

Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 Emblem

The Games Distinctive Element

This element expresses the unique image of the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. You are kindly requested to display the Games Distinctive element, and ensure that it is always combined with the wordmark and the Olympic symbol. These elements must never be separated, unless specifically authorised.

Wordmark

This is the official wordmark that has been developed for the Tokyo 2020 Games. It is composed of the city name and the year of the Olympic Games.

Olympic symbol

This is the symbol of the International Olympic Committee (IOC).

Trademark

As a general rule, the 'TM' symbol should be included in the Games emblem.

*When the Games emblem is smaller than 30mm width, the 'TM' symbol may be excluded.

Emblem | Clear space

In order for the emblem to be correctly recognised, it is important that each design element is appropriately isolated from the other elements. The space used to separate the various design elements is called 'clear space.' When using the emblem, please comply with the criteria shown here, and ensure you leave the appropriate amount of clear space between each design element.

Minimum size

To ensure the legibility of the emblem for any small-size application, special care must be taken not to reduce the artwork below the minimum size guidelines. Both the full-colour and monochrome colours of the emblem should appear no smaller than 12mm / 35pixels wide.

For some specific applications (e.g. on pin badges), provided that legibility of the emblem is perfectly ensured and the integrity of the Olympic rings is preserved, the rule on minimum size might not be applied, with the prior consent of the Organising Committee.

Tokyo 2020 Wordmark

When used by NOCs, the wordmark may be applied to:

- Non-competition clothing items: clothes for opening, closing and awards ceremonies, travel/reception uniforms and casual clothes (including pin badges). In this case, the wordmark may not be directly associated with the manufacturer's logo – there must be a distance between the two logos. The Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 emblem may also be applied to these materials.
- Competition clothing items and training clothes. When applied together with the NOC emblem, the wordmark must be placed below the NOC emblem. A clear separation between the NOC emblem and the wordmark is needed.

The Olympic Games Tokyo 2020 emblem may also be applied to these materials provided that they do not feature the manufacturer's logo. These applications must be submitted for approval to the IOC, in accordance with the rules imposed by Tokyo 2020.
